

STATINTL

Wearing White in Snowy Setting ...

Two Dozen Debs Make Bows at Ball

WHILE 300 guests in evening dress watched from the ornate gold boxes of the Mayflower Hotel's grand ballroom last night, twenty-four young girls made their official entry into the Capital's social life.

Girls making their bows last night included Sarah Abernethy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Abernethy, a graduate of Madeira School and student at Vassar College; Daphne Achilles, daughter of U. S. Ambassador to Peru and Mrs. Theodore Achilles, a graduate of Farmington and student at Goucher College and Edith Blair, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair, a graduate of Mt. Vernon and student at Bennett Junior College. Also Elizabeth Boothe, daughter of Virginia State Senator and Mrs. Armistead Boothe, graduate of St. Catherine's School and student at Colby College; Ann Bradley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradley, a graduate of Madeira and student at Ford Junior College; Katherine Carter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hill Carter, graduate of St. Catherine's and student at Sweetbriar

College; and Randall Clifford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Clifford, a student at Foxcroft School.

Others presented included Noel Clark, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Joseph Clark, a graduate of Miss Porter's and student at Bryn Mawr College; Hope Cooke, niece and ward of the Deputy Commandant of the National War College, a student at Sara Lawrence College; Harriet Ecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ecker, a graduate of Madeira and student at Pine Manor; Frances Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Fitzgerald, a graduate of Foxcroft and student at Radcliffe; and Mary Virginia Gibb, daughter of Cmdr. and Mrs. Charles Gibb, a graduate of Madeira and student at Briarcliffe. Still others were Ann Houghton, daughter of Mrs. Alfred Houghton, a graduate of St. Catherine's and student at Pine Manor; Elise Kauffmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kauffmann II, a graduate of Westover and student at Connecticut College; Eliza Kellogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kellogg, a graduate of Milton Academy and student at Radcliffe; Prudence Lloyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gates Lloyd, a graduate of Chatham School and student at Wheaton College; Marcia McGhee, daughter of former Ambassador and Mrs. George McGhee, a graduate of Madeira and student at Vassar.

Still more were Gail Owen, daughter of Mrs. Dudley Owen, a graduate of Westover and student at Radcliffe; Sandra Smith, daughter of International Cooperation Administrator and Mrs. James Smith, a graduate of the Kent School and student at Mount Vernon Junior College; Margo Stratford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stratford, a student at Westover; Elizabeth Ann Swift, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Swift, a graduate of Madeira and student at Stanford; Katherine Walker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Allen Walker, a graduate of Madeira and student at Wellesley College; Gillian Walker, daughter of the Director of the National Gallery and Mrs. John Walker III, a graduate of Miss Porter's and student at Radcliffe; and Christine Willcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox, a graduate of Ethel Walker School.

CPYRGHT